PC/06/64 OUTSIDE BODIES

- a) Cllr. Rayner declared an interest and asked to speak on the R.B.W. & M. Planning Application consideration regarding the gravel extraction proposals on land adjacent to Horton Road. The Council allowed him to speak. Cllr. Rayner voiced his concerns about the misinformation posted on the BBC Action Network Site which stated that the applicant was considering a proposal for an application to send sand and gravel lorries through the village. This was fundamentally UNTRUE. Further additions and comments to this fabrication had exacerbated and promoted this misinformation.

The Chairman informed members that he had a meeting with Jayflex 2 weeks ago and their representatives would be attending the next Services Committee meeting on 28th November 2006.

- b) Cllr. Laxman said that he had attended the Mayor's Quiz Night and also informed the Council that the present arrangements for Wraysbury patients to attend that Orchard Practice would cease on the 11th December 2006.
- c) Cllr. Mrs Underhill informed the Council of the postponement of the Westfield Trust meeting who would be calling an AGM, date to be arranged.
